

FORMICA VENEERS RANGE

Formica® Veneers combine the warmth and elegance of natural wood with the practicality of laminate. This stunning range is designed for dry interior, light duty applications that require only moderate durability or stain and heat resistance.

The product has advantages over conventional veneers in aesthetics and quality. It offers variety, from natural to original colours and effects, with consistency, thus facilitating joining and matching for series applications.

